

FORM A: MY EVOLUTION AS A PUPPETEER

Items of interest may include:

1. Your first realization that you had a fascination with puppets/theatre.
2. A special mentor(s) and what that person helped you realize in your self/your work.
3. How the puppet/design(s) is representative of your self/your work.
4. A short anecdote descriptive of your development as a puppeteer.
5. A small photo or business card (non-returnable).

Your story must be neatly typed/printed on 8 1/2" x 11" bond paper (letterhead o.k.). We will keep this for our archives, so make yourself a copy.

Your story will be inserted in a standard 8 1/2" x 11" acetate cover and inserted in a three ring binder on display in the gallery.

FORM B: MY CREATIVE DISCOVERY PROCESS

A collage/description of the development of the puppet on exhibit. Be sure to identify the puppet and yourself on this entry.

This entry may be between 8 1/2" x 11" up to 14" x 22" (fits carry-on luggage) and must be securely mounted on a mat board and covered with clear acetate. One entry only, please. The corners of your entry will be pierced for mounting.

EXHIBIT AGREEMENT
(Sign and Return with Proposal)

The 2001 Puppet Odyssey Exhibit will be held at the Scarfone Gallery on the University of Tampa Campus, Tampa, Florida.

Puppets and two dimensional exhibit entries must be in good repair and will be hand carried to the Scarfone Gallery and set up by individual exhibitors with the guidance of exhibit personnel by 4 pm Sunday July 8, 2001.

All exhibit items will be removed from the exhibit by exhibitors showing a claim ticket no later than 4 pm Saturday July 14, 2001.

Items will be exhibited on pedestals or hung in the gallery, uncovered. Cases will not cover your items.

Include with each puppet a support stand. Exception: we can support most marionettes from above, but marionette stands are appreciated.

Insurance is your responsibility and may be provided for under your homeowner's policy.

Any item not picked up at the end of the festival will be returned to you C.O.D.

You need to provide with your entry a list of each item and the value of each item.
